

CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of
COUGHS, COLDS,
HOARSENESS, BRON-CHITIS, CROUP, ASTH-MA, WHOOPING-COUGH
AND CONSUMPTION.

ATTN: CHERRY PECTORAL.—We would call the attention of our readers to a Circular enclosed in this day's issue of our paper, which is itself its own evidence of character and the intrinsic worth of the preparation it goes to recommend. Read it—it is worth reading.

The distinguished names lent in its favor are sufficient assurance of its value, and the medicine itself shows that it is worthy of the best commendation bestowed upon it.

When such men in our own country as Prof. William of Yale College, Prof. Hitchcock, the venerable President of Amherst College, Prof. Barlett of Transylvania College of Medicine, Dr. Valentine Mott of N.Y. City, the learned Editor of the Boston Medical & Surgical Journal, the Southern Medical Review, the Western Lancet, &c. &c., as well as many high medical authorities in foreign countries, give their evidence so strongly in favor of the Cherry Pectoral, that no one can doubt its efficacy, even if we had not the evidence of our own experience in its favor. No medicine could have better friends, and certainly none deserves them.

We may then safely congratulate the public on the possession of a remedy that can be relied on for relief from the scourge and terror of our climate—croup of the lungs.

For sale by C. W. SCHAFFLE, Lewisburg; J. H. Taylor, Milton; Lewis Gehring, Selinsgrove; and by Druggists generally.

SCHOOL NOTICE.

At a meeting of the Board of School

Directors of the Borough of Lewisburg, held March 23, 1850, it was resolved to commence Three Public Schools on the 1st day of May next, to continue Five Months. No scholars will be admitted into these schools under five nor over nine years of age. All scholars admitted during the Summer Term, will be refused admission into the Public Schools during the next Winter Term.

PROPOSALS

Will be received by the Board, from this date until the 10th day of April next, for Three Female Teachers to take charge of the above-named Schools.

By order of the Board:

WM. WILSON, Pres't.

JOHN Houghton, Sec'y.

March 23, 1850.

DISSOLUTION.

THE Co-Partnership heretofore existing between L. Sterner and J. Sanderson, trading under the firm of Sterner & Sanderson, was this day dissolved by mutual consent. The Books and Accounts are in the hands of L. Sterner, to whom they have been transferred.

L. STERNER.

NOTICE.

N. B. For past favors, the subscriber returns his grateful thanks, and hereby makes known that he still carries on the business of

Tanning and Currying,

at the Old Stand. Determined not to be outdone in the manufacture or finish of his work, he is bound to have the best workmen and material, and to treat those who have so liberally patronized (as well as those also who shall be pleased to patronize

him) with that attention which he hopes to insure him a full share of public patronage.

All kinds of Produce taken in exchange,

Hides and Bark not refused, for which the highest market price will be paid in cash

or in exchange for leather.

YOUNG LADIES' SEMINARY

Muncy, Lycoming Co., Pa.

Rev. JOHN SMALLEY, A. M., Principal.

Mrs. M. S. SMALLEY, Associate Principal.

ASSISTED BY TWO WELL QUALIFIED TEACHERS.

THIS Seminary is designed to afford as good

an education, in both the solid and ornamental

branches, as can be obtained in any school in Pennsylvania. Hence, instruction will be given in all the branches usually taught in the highest order of female schools.

The Summer Term will commence on Wednesday the 1st day of May, 1850, and continue

The Summer Session of the LEWISBURG ACADEMY.

WILL commence on Monday the 29th of April. Instruction will be given, as formerly, in all branches necessary to a thorough

Academic course. Our endeavor shall not be simply to communicate knowledge, but to excite the youthful mind to act for itself. When this is fully attained, the progress of the student becomes at once certain and rapid. The kind of learning which most of our youths in this country is, that solid literature, which, while it matures their minds, prepares them also for the practical duties of life.

Composition and Declamation will receive their full share of attention—particularly the former.

The Primary Department shall have our special care. From the disposition manifested to sustain the Institution, the subscriber feels stimulated to renew his exertions.

The Session will consist of two Terms of 11 weeks each—a short vacation intervening. Tuition—$6 for the common branches, $8 for the higher English, and $10 for Languages, per Session—per Term, one half.
